

DRI team recovers foreign cigarettes worth Rs 30 lakh at Mughalsarai station

Binay Singh | Jun 23, 2017, 05.27 PM IST

VARANASI: The officials of the Directorate of Revenue Intelligence recovered foreign cigarettes in huge quantity from a train in Mughalsarai railway station in Chandauli district on Thursday evening.

According to the senior investigation officer of DRI Anand Rai, inputs were continuously being received by the officers of DRI, Varanasi that foreign origin smuggled cigarettes are being transported from North East states to Delhi. Acting on a specific input, DRI team searched 14055 Brahmaputra Mail coming from Dibrugarh, at Mughalsarai railway station on Thursday evening and seized 4 lakhs such cigarettes sticks worth Rs. 30 lakhs.

Representative image.

The cigarette brands like Win, Paris, Ruili River are being smuggled through Myanmar border and destined for Delhi, he said adding that further investigation is on to nab the culprits.

Source: <http://timesofindia.indiatimes.com/city/varanasi/dri-team-recovers-foreign-cigarettes-worth-rs-30-lakh-at-mughalsarai-station/articleshow/59286805.cms>